

Bill Wurtz - Mount St. Helens Is About To Blow Up

tom:
                                                            And I haven't been there in a while
                                                                                                 Bh7

                                                                        D Fm7
                                                            And I've been wondering if it's even still there?
Mount St. Helens is about to blow up
                                                            And the climate has been changing
And it's gonna be a fine, swell day
                                            A7M D7
                                                            And soon it's gonna change more
                  D
                              Em
Everything's gonna fall down to the ground and turn grey
                                                                               Cm
                                                                                     Bm7

                                                                                                    Am7
                                                                                                           D7
                                                            And we'll figure out all of the details in climate change
All of my friends, family, and animals court

                                                            Take a ride on my blimp
But me, I'm feeling curious, so I think I just might stay
                                                                       Eb7M Cm7
                                                            Oh, it's a very strong blimp
                                                                        Fm7
                                                            You can watch movies and play games
The Dow Jones just fell down to zero
                                                                       Eb7M
And it's gonna be a fine, swell day
                                                            While riding on it

And I wonder if it's gonna be as good a day as yesterday
                                                            When the sun goes down and the sky burns out
                                                                     Cm7
All of these business suits that I've just purchased
                                                            We'll never slow down
                                                                       Cm7

                                                            Gm7
Gonna have to throw them all away
                                                            Oh, we're not going down

                                                            And it really doesn't listen
So I'm not in hell yet
                                                                  Am7 D7
                                                            And it seems so eccentric
                           Bb7
      Fm7
And the people who work in my office went on vacation
                                                                  Am7 D7
