Intro: Bm   Gb   G   Bm
        Bm   Gb   G   Bm
               Bm
When I was older
  Gb           G
I was a sailor
  G          Gb
On an open sea
       Bm            Gb
But now I'm underwater
 Gb            G
And my skin is paler
  G            Gb
Than it should ever be
 Bm              Gb
I'm on my back again
      Gb              G
Dreaming of a time and place
     Gb                       Bm
Where you and I remain the best of friends
    Gb            G
Even after all this ends
  G          Gb
Can we pretend?
   Bm
I'm on my
     Bm             Gb
I'm on my back again
         Gb
It's seeming more and more
              G
Like all we ever do is see
  G           Gb
How far it bends
        Bm               Gb
Before it breaks in half and then
 G                Gb
We bend it back again
       Bm                Gb
Guess I got caught in the middle of it
          Gb
Yes, I've been taught, got a little of it
  G              Gb
In my blood, in my blood
            Gb
```
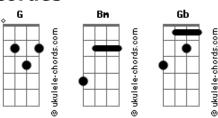

```
Memories burn like a forest fire
    Bm                    Gb
Heavy rain turns any funeral pyre to mud
          Gb       G     Gb
In the flood

       Bm       Gb
When I was older
      Gb       G
I was a sailor
          G         Gb
On an open sea
        Bm            Gb
But now I'm underwater
       Gb           G
And my skin is paler
                 Gb
Than it should ever be
       Bm              Gb
I'm watching movies back to back
           Gb           G
In black and white, I never
         G                Gb
Seen anybody do it like I do it any better
         Bm              Gb
Then going over you
       Gb     G        Gb
I'm overdue for no endeavors
         Bm              Gb
Nobody lonely like I'm lonely
        Gb               G
And I don't know whether
     G                Gb
You'd really like it in the limelight
         Bm                    Gb
You'd sympathize with all the bad guys
             Gb           G
I'm still a victim in my own right
           G                Gb
But I'm the villain in my own eyes, yeah
       Bm       Gb
When I was older
      Gb     G
I was a sailor
     G         Gb
On an open sea
