

Billie Holiday - Lady Day

Tom: C

Intro: Am Am Dm G7 C Am E7-

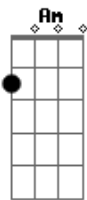

Am Fdim G G
Her day was born in shades of blue
C Am
Her song was sad the words were true
D Dm G G
Her morning came too fast too soon
C Am
And died before the afternoon
G Cdim Dm Gdim G7 G C Am
Poor lady day could use some love, some sunshine
Dm Dm Dm G Fdim C
Lady day has too much rain
G Cdim Dm Gdim G7 G C Am
Poor lady day could use some spring, some breezes
Dm Dm Dm G Fdim C
Lady day has too much pain
Am Am Dm G7 C Am
It's such a lonely face, it's such a cloudy sky

Dm G Fdim G7 Am Am
So many shadows in her eye
Am Am Dm G7 C Am
So many empty dreams, so many bitter times,
Dm Fdim Am
Just a handful of broken rhymes.
G Cdim Dm Gdim G7 G C Am
Poor lady day could use a smile, some kindness
Dm Dm Dm G Fdim C
Lady day has too much rain
G Cdim Dm Gdim G7 G C Am
Poor lady day could use some dreams, some flowers
Dm Dm Dm G Fdim C
Lady day has too much pain
Am Am Dm G7 C Am
Just too much to say, just too much to know
Dm G Fdim G7 Am Am
Too little time to say, "Hello"
Am Am Dm G7 C Am
And then the evening comes, and now she doesn't cry
Am Dm Fdim Am
And it's too late to say, "Goodbye"
