

Black Jack (Rock N' Roll) - I Gotta Run

```
[Refrão]
                                     tom:
Intro: Em D D D C D
                                                                                                                                                      Gotta run and it's not from today
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                      Ain't no reason to throw it all away
                                                                                                                                                                                                     G
                        D D D C G
                                                                                                                                                      Bad luck will not belong to me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                       Aadd9 Badd9 Cadd9 Dadd9
Why do they always lie to me?
Am G C D
Trying to ramble
                                                                                                                                                      I'm on my way, that's all I got
                                                                                                                                                                     C D Em
Em D D D
                                                                                                                                                      I gotta run
Promises that make me sick % \begin{center} \begi
\mathsf{G} \quad \mathsf{Am} \quad \mathsf{G} \qquad \mathsf{C} \quad \mathsf{D}
                                                                                                                                                      (CDGGAm)
I laid cards on the table
                                                                                                                                                      Hook
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                        G G D
Am C Em
I can see the rainbow while I run
                                                                                                                                                      Uh, that's all I got
Am C
I've been through so long in that road
                                                                                                                                                      [Solo] G D Em
                                                                                                                                                                      G G Am G D
But now I gotta
                                                                                                                                                                      \mathsf{G} \quad \mathsf{D} \quad \mathsf{Em} \quad \mathsf{D}
                                                                                                                                                                      G G Am G D
[Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                      C D Em
                                                                                                                                                                      C D Am
Gotta run and it's not from today
                                                                                                                                                      Can you see the rainbow while you run?
                                                                                                                                                      I can see the rainbow while I run
Ain't no reason to throw it all away
                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Cadd9
                                                                                                                                                      Aadd9 Badd9
                                                G
Bad luck will not belong to \ensuremath{\mathsf{me}}
                                                                                                                                                      You can see the rainbow while you run
                                                               Aadd9 Badd9 Cadd9 Dadd9
I'm on my way, that's all I got Uh!
     C D Em
                                                                                                                                                      [Refrão]
I gotta run
( C D C7M )
                                                                                                                                                      Gotta run and it's not from today
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                                                                                                      Ain't no reason to throw it all away
                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                                     G
                                                                                                                                                      Bad luck will not belong to me
The time will drive me to be free
                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Aadd9 Badd9 Cadd9 Dadd9
                                                                                                                                                      I'm on my way, that's all I got
I'm just fighting for
Em D D D
Promises that make me sink
                                                                                                                                                      I gotta run
\mathsf{G}\;\mathsf{A}\;\;\mathsf{G}\;\;\mathsf{C}\;\;\mathsf{G}\;\;\mathsf{A}\;\;\mathsf{G}
In true feelings and nothing more
                                                                                                                                                      (G D Em D)
                                                                                                                                                      (GGAMGD)
                                           Fm
I can see the rainbow while I run \,
                                                                                                                                                      (GDEmDGGAmGD)
                                                                                                                                                      That's why I gotta run
I've been through so long in desert road
                                                                                                                                                      ( G G Am )
( G G D Em )
         D
Right now I gotta
Acordes
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Aadd9
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Badd9
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        ukulele-chords.com
                                                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                                                         ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         ukulele-chords.com
                            ukulele-chords.com
                                        Dadd9
         Cadd9
                           ukulele-chords.com
```