

Black Jack (Rock N' Roll) - The Way

tom:
 No more tears, no more regrets
 No more sorrows in my chest
 No more complaints, let's enjoy the day
 There was a time
 That I walked in a lonely road
 I got to survive
 And I found her heart to call home
 Things started to be fine
 Since I met this beautiful girl, oh-oh
 I looked in her eyes
 And I felt me so hard as a stone
 No more tears, no more regrets
 No more sorrows in my chest
 No more complaints, let's enjoy the day
 Are you listening to this sound?
 This is the way to find out
 Where is the happiness that we need for our lives?
 How it's so nice
 When something opens your mind

Now it's the time
 To thank for this wonderful life
 Things are alright, yeah
 And I owe to this beautiful world
 I look at the sky
 All the stars can dance in my thoughts
 No more tears, no more regrets
 No more sorrows in my chest
 No more complaints, let's enjoy the day
 Are you listening to this sound?
 This is the way to find out
 Where is the magic that we need for our lives
 No more tears, no more regrets
 No more sorrows in my chest
 No more complaints, let's enjoy the day
 Are you listening to this sound?
 This is the way to find out
 Where is the magic that we need for our lives
 Where is the magic that we need for our lives?
 Where is the happiness?
