And here i stand
i find myself alone again the miles iv'e walked loss of hope and loss of friends
yet i keep on runnin'
and i won't look back

the waters rise
you never know just where they're at

the waters turn
yeah,yeah
the hardships we endure
you aint the only son
or forgotton daughter
we all drown in blackend waters

the sun has set the endless stream where nothing lastes forever damned
today to morrow and all the past
you never know just where they're at
