G                    A                    Bm
 My father told me always be strong son
 G                    A                    Bm
 Don't you ever cry
 G                    A                    Bm
 You find the pretty girls and then you love them
 G                    A                    Bm
 Then you say goodbye
 G                    A                    Bm
 I never dreamed that you would leave me
 G                    A                    Bm
 But now you're gone
 G                    A                    Bm
 I never dreamed that I would miss you
 G                    A                    Bm
 Woman won't you come back home

G, A, Bm 4x

G                    A                    Bm
 I never dreamed that you could hurt me
 G                    A                    Bm
 And leave me blue
 G                    A                    Bm
 I've had a thousand, maybe more

G                    A                    Bm
 But never one like you
 G                    A                    Bm
 I never dreamed I could feel so empty
 G                    A                    Bm
 But now I'm down
 G                    A                    Bm
 I never dreamed that I would beg you
 G                    A                    Bm
 Woman I need you now

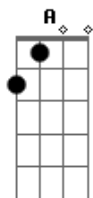

G, A, Bm 4x

D                    E                    G                    D
 It seems to me I took your love for granted
 Bm                    G                    A                    A
 It feels to me that this time I was wrong, so wrong
 D                    E                    G                    D
 Oh Lord now I feel so lonely
 Bm                    G                    A
 Woman won't you come back home

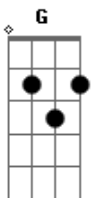

Solo...

G                    A                    Bm
 I tried to do what my father taught me
 G                    A                    Bm
 But I think he knew
 G                    A                    Bm
 Someday that I would find
 G                    A                    Bm
 One woman like you
 G                    A                    Bm                    G
 I never dreamed that it could feel so good, Lord
 A                    Bm
 That two could be one
 G                    A                    Bm
 I never knew about sweet love, Lord
 G                    A                    Bm
 Woman won't you come back home
