

Black Label Society - Ozzy's Song

tom:

Intro: A E D A E D A

I saw you yesterday
 Before you went away
 Remember when
 Never thinking it would end
 Blue skies up above
 But soon we'd feel the cold
 Although we knew
 We chose not to know
 Not to know, but it's okay

The skies may cry
 But I'll be holding on, holding on
 The skies may cry
 Now the race is run
 All the chaos and all the wars
 When all is said and done
 I couldn't ask for more
 Enjoy the ride
 Before it's gone
 Enjoy the ride

It doesn't last for long
 Just trying to get by Trying to survive
 Broken down
 Yet I'm still alive
 Speak of me
 It's alright
 The skies may cry
 But I'll be holding on, holding on
 The skies may cry
 Now the race is run
 All the chaos and all the wars
 When all is said and done
 I couldn't ask for more
 SOLO: (D Bm A Gbm)
 The skies may cry
 But I'll be holding on, holding on
 The skies may cry
 Now the race is run
 All the chaos and all the wars
 When all is said and done
 I couldn't ask for more
