

Black Sea Dahu - Big Mouth

tom:
Capostrate na 5ª casa

Oh today I won't be thinkin' about you
I'll get by on someone else's love
Oh today you won't be hearing from me cause I am high on music
I'm nowhere within reach for you
Oh today I'll push away my tears
And I'll watch you wash beer into your big

Your big mouth
 I'm standing on the balcony
 And I can hear you sweet talk her into making out with you
 Oh I can't believe you got through and broke my heart in two
 Time and again
 Now the skies are dark and I won't ever feel the same
 Well not for you
 I'm feeling blue and the world is coal
 Man I don't know you anymore but go on all night
