

Blackberry Smoke - Waiting For The Thunder

tom:
E
B B B E B B B E

[Verse 1]
B
Light the fuse and run now brother
Cuz' you ain't got a lot of time A E A E
B
Don't you act surprised D A D A
When it all goes to hell on your dime B
Maybe you can stand tall enough A E A E
To look the devil eye to eye B
But you better make your getaway quick

So you don't have to answer why

[Chorus]
D A
The bells will ring
D A E B
And the flames will fly
D A
Two thousand years of fury in the
D A E B
big black sky
D A
The wind will roll
D A E B
And the rain will fall
D A
Are we waiting for the thunder?
D A E B
Will the lightnin' get us all?

[Riff]
B B B E
B B B E

Waitin' for the thunder

[Verse 2]
B
All the money and the war and religion A E A E
And the which one do you serve?
B
Maybe them with the power and the glory D A D A
Got more than they deserve B
Why do we stand by and do nothin' A E A E
While they piss it all away?
B
And we hope we wake up in the mornin'

To the light of a brand new day

[Chorus]
D A
The bells will ring
D A E B

Acordes

And the flames will fly
D A
Two thousand years of fury in the
D A E B
big black sky
D A
The wind will roll
D A E B
And the rain will fall
D A
Are we waiting for the thunder?
D A E B
Will the lightnin' get us all?
