

Blind Guardian - The Bard's Song

```
Who lived far from here
                            tom:
                B (forma dos acordes no tom de C )
                                                                 Am
                            Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb
                                                                 Now the bard songs are over
                                                                 And it's time to leave
                                                                                           Em
Now You all know
                                                                 Am G
                                                                 No one should ask You for the name Of the one
                   Am
The bards and their songs
                                                                 C G Am G C G Am G
                                                                 Who tells the story
When hours have gone by
                                                                  Dm Am Dm
    Am
I'll close my eyes
                                                                 Tomorrow will take us away
                                                                 Dm Am
In a world far away
                                                                 Far from home
                                                                 Dm F G Dm
Em Am
                                                                No one will ever know our names

F

G

Am

But the bards' songs will remain
We may meet again
But now hear my song

Em Dm

About the dawn of the night

C G Am G

Let's sing the bards' song
                                                                 Dm Am Dm Am
Tomorrow all will be known
                              C G Am G
                                                                  Dm Am
                                                                 And You're not alone
 Dm Am Dm Am
                                                                 So don't be afraid
Tomorrow will take us away
                                                                  G Dm
                                                                 In the dark and cold
Far from home
                                                                  F
Dm F G Dm
                                                                 'Cause the bards' songs will remain
No one will ever know our names
                                                                  C G Am
F G Am
But the bards' songs will remain
Dm Am Dm Am
                                                                 They all will remain
Tomorrow will take it away
                                                                 In my thoughts and in my dreams

C G Am
 Dm Am
                                                                 They're always in my mind
C G Am
These songs of hobbits, dwarves and men
The fear of today
 Dm F
It will be gone
 Am Em
Due to our magic songs
                                                                 And elves
                                                                  G
                                                                 Come close Your eyes
There's only one song
                                                                       C G Em
                                                                 You can see them, too
Left in my mind
Tales of a brave man
Acordes
      В
                                 Еb
                                               AЬ
                                                             DЬ
                         ukulele-chords.com
                                       ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                            ukulele-chords.com
```