

Blind Melon - Holyman

Tom: C

Tom :D

Intro: D C D C

D I was born on the banks off a hot muddy river C
 D The child of one stupid steamy night C
 D Born to roam beneath the sun C
 What do you think of me, I?m better left alone D
 D Said I met a holy man who said that he knew the way C G D C G
 D And he?d like to show me so my life won't go astray C G D F C
 D Take my hand child now little boy don?t you be afraid C G
 D I?ll take your soul and walk on water C F C
 D Holyman, ya don?t understand D
 The cuts on me they run much deeper C
 D Holyman, you righteous man C
 D I?ve been shown the way a thousand times C
 D Not one a keeper D C C D D C C D
 Older man he said I?ll tell you boy
 You?ve planted rotten seeds
 And in a land of happiness

They?ll grow us evil trees
 Guided minds, and eyes that will never see
 Holyman I?ll tell you
 Just what it is that I believe
 -Chorus-
 Holyman I tell you man you gotta
 Believe in what you see
 'Cause its you that corrupt us man and
 Deep throat philosophy
 I don?t need your spells or the little
 Games you try to pull on me
 Come to think of it I don?t need your religion
 -Chorus-
 D D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 I gotta look away D C D
 C7 D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 D C I wish you would understand D C D
 Everybody prays
 Let me find my own way
 -Chorus-
 C Let me find my own way D Holy man
 C ya don't understand D the cuts on me
 they run much deeper D Holy man C you righteous man
 D I've been shown the way a thousand times C
 D not one a keeper C Not one a keeper D C
 D Not one a keeper C Not one a keeper D C
 D Not one a keeper C D
 Not one a keeper

Acordes

