I can't help myself anymore
A rehearsing my thoughts as I,m to scared to come to your door
A I pushed it all aside just stand next to you
A Now you won't talk to me for something I didn't do

It's not going to work
And I'm trying not to think of you
I'm all confused as I think of the things that I should do
I'm all shook up as I get all nervous inside
My emotions are something that I will always hide
