```
Dbm                              E
Your bed is the last battlefield
                   A
A nuclear weapon
Dbm                                E
Let?s search and destroy all the innocent
Throats we can step on
Dbm
You bury your face underneath
E                        A
 Half-hearted confessions
Dbm
You poison yourself with the thought
E                        A
 I won?t love you to death

Black lights across my face

Words that we?ll never write

Wait for the phone to ring

Back to the starting line, go!
  Abm                    Gb
I don?t feel pain, but I feel more than
B            E
You?d ever know
   Abm                    Gb
I don?t feel shame, I don?t have highs
B            E
But I?ve got some lows
   Abm                    Gb
I feel a bit cursed, I?ve been numb
B            E
And sinking down like a stone
   Abm                    Gb
I don?t feel pain, but I feel more
B            E
Than you?d ever know

More than you?d know

( Dbm   E   A )
( Dbm   E   A )

Dbm                              E
I shook all the leaves from your tree
Dbm
I can?t see the colors you see
E                        A
They won?t see me coming
Dbm
The ivy is starting to creep
```
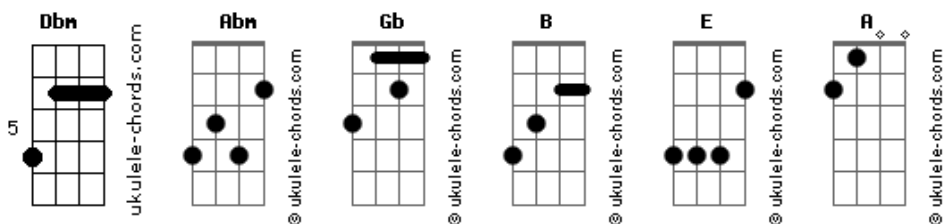

```
E                              A
It grows through the awnings
Dbm
It?s dawning on me that
E                              A
I shouldn?t be trying at all

Black lights across my face

Words that we?ll never write

On and on,  I swear we don?t belong
