

Blink 182 - No Future

Tom: C
                                                              Hope for so much more
  Intro:
                                                              Refrão:
                                                              You don't know a thing about it
Verso: ( mesmo riff da intro)
                                                              Hours lost from to dawn from dusk
She said
                                                              And they don't care about you
tonight's a waste of time
                                                              No future
The next day
the sun will always rise
                                                              Let the music seal your fate, yeah
Every day that you waste, every promise you break
                                                              You can run, but life won't wait, yeah
Slips beneath the floor
                                                               They don't care about you
It's a permanent state
                                                              No future
From a moment's mistake
                                                              NA NA NA NA NA: (MESMA BASE DO REFRÃO) 2X
But life's worth so much more
                                                               Interlúdio:
Refrão:
                                                                 P.M.....
You don't know a thing about it
                                                              Where did she go
Hours lost from to dawn from dusk
                                                              And what did she hope to find there
And they don't care about you
                                                              Where did she go
No future
                                                              And what did she hope to find there
Let the music seal your fate, yeah
                                                               Where did she go, did she go, did she go
You can run, but life won't wait, yeah
                                                               Where did she go to find it
            A G
They don't care about you
                                                               Where did she go, did she go, did she go
No future
                                                              Where did she go to find it
Verso 2:
                                                              Refrão:
                                                              You don't know a thing about it
She said
                                                              Hours lost from to dawn from dusk that it's too late to try
                                                               And they don't care about you
Someday
I'll smile and say goodbye
                                                              Let the music seal your fate, yeah
Every night that you fight every demon in sight
                                                               You can run, but life won't wait, yeah
Sleeping on the floor
                                                               They don't care about you
Wide awake from the dream
                                                              NA NA NA NA NA: (MESMA BASE DO REFRÃO) 2X
With a shake and a scream
                                                              Final: F
