

Blues Saraceno - Evil's On The Run

Tom: B

m

Oh my love, it's all over now
 And we never, never had a chance
 Oh my love, it's all over now
 And we're never, never coming back
 What have you done, what have you done
 What have you done, when your favorite color's black evil's on the
 Run
 Oh my dear will you weep for me now
 The writing, the writings on the wall
 Oh my dear will you weep for me now
 Cause the levee, the levee's 'bout to fall

What have you done, what have you done
 What have you done, when your favorite color's black evil's on the
 Run
 As your last breath slips away,
 And falls deeper to the grave
 Will your secret have someone to tell?
 Will you pray, will you be saved?
 What have you done, what have you done
 What have you done, what have you done
 What have you done, what have you done
 What have you done, when your favorite color's black evil's on the Run evil's on the run
