      E   Em   Bm
There are too many of us, that's plain to see
   Am   Bm   B
We all believe in praying for our immortality
      E   Em   Bm
We've posed these questions to our children, and crossed the mountain stream
    Am   Bm   B
And live in tiny house of the same mistakes we've made

            E   Em   Bm
Cause there are too many of us, in tiny houses here and there
Am   Bm   B
Passing out somewhere but you won't care

E Em Bm Bm
Am Am Bm B

      E   Em   Bm
There are too many of us, that's plain to see
   Am   Bm   B
We all believe in praying for our immortality
      E   Em   Bm
For a moment I was dislocated, my terror on the loop, elsewhere

Am   Bm   B
Flashing lights are vacating on the big screens everywhere

            E   Em   Bm
Cause there are too many of us, in tiny houses here and there
Am   Bm   B
Passing out somewhere but you won't care

Em G Bm Bm
C Am Gb B

      Em   G   Bm
There are too many of us in tiny houses, here and there
    C   Am   Gb   B
All looking through the windows, on everything we share

E Em Bm Bm
Am Am Bm B

   Em   G   Bm
We pose these questions to our children, leave the mountain stream
    C   Am   Gb   B
And live in tiny houses of the same mistakes we make
            Em   G   Bm
Cause there are too many of us, it's plain to see
    C   Am   Gb   B
All living in tiny houses about our immortality
