

B.M - Broken Me

tom:

Bm

Oh growing numb to all the suffering and pain

What's left of all my sanity is held just by a thread

I've been in a war with all the demons in my head

I've fallen yeah

Anxiety is creeping I can feel it come again

Lights are getting dimmer and walls are closing in

Can't you see I'm suffocating more with every breath

Noone sees I'm suffocating more with every breath

Hide myself from the world

All of my scars

Blind and deaf to all of your words

I'm bleeding inside

Heart is weighing heavy

Everything that I've been bearing

All the pressure that I carry

I know I know

I'll end up on my own

Though I hate to admit I got to

Baby I been

Brooo...ken

I don't wanna be brooo...ken

Feelin all alone

No matter how I try

Its aching to the bone

And it kills me everytime

Baby I've been brooo...ken

Don't leave me here broken baby
