

BoA - Drinking

Tom: D

T0:

FROM: Geoffrey Anderson

It shouldn't give you any problems.

Some of this is approximate. Listen to the CD to get a good feel for it. If you find mistakes, feel free e-mail me.

Note: I've tried, but I can't figure out what the electric guitar is doing in the background of the verse. It's just barely audible. If anyone can figure this part out, please let me know.
Intro:

Verse (play this four times)

On the last measure of verse 1, another guitar comes in:

Chorus

Play the chorus riff four times, except on the third time, substitute this for the last two measures:

Now, repeat the verse. On the last two measures of verse 2, substitute this:

And on to...

Bridge

Return to verse, then play the chorus riff until the end...and that's it! The electric guitar parts in outro can be easily improvised based on the simple E-G-D chord pattern.
