Bob Dylan - Boots Of Spanish Leather

Tom: F	from across that lonesome ocean.
	Well I just though you might want something fine made of silver or of golden either from the mountains of Madrid or the coast of Barcelona.
Well I'm sailin' away my own true love	If I had the stars from the darkest night and the diamonds from the deepest ocean, I'd foresake them all for your sweet kiss, for that's all I'm wishin' to be ownin'
I'm sailin' away mornin'
in the	That I might be gone a long old time, and it's only that I'm askin'. Is there something I can give you to remember me by, To make your time more easy passin'?
Is somethin send across the sea
there I can you from	Oh how can, how can you ask me again? It only brings me sorrow. For the same thing that I want from you today I would want again tomorrow.
From the place I'll be landing?	- ···· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
where	Well I got a letter on a lonesome day.
verses:	It was from her ship a'sailin'. Sayin' "I don't know when I'll be comin' back again. It depends on how I'm feelin'."
Well I'm sailin away my own true love. I'm sailin' away in the mornin' Is there something I can bsend you from across the	Well if you my love must think that a'way I'm sure your mind is a'roamin'.
sea,	I'm sure your heart is not with me
From the place where I'll be landin'?	but with the country where you're goin'.
No, there's nothing you can bring me my own true love. There's nothing I wish to be ownin'. Just carry yourself back to me unspoiled	So take heed, take heed of the Western wind. Take heed of the stormy weather. And yes, there's something you can send back to me; SPANISH BOOTS OF SPANISH LEATHER.
