

Bob Dylan - Don't Fall Apart On Me Tonight

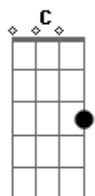

Tom: C

(intro 4x) C Em F

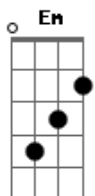

C Em F Just a minute 'fore you leave, girl,
C Em just a minute 'fore you touch the door.
C Em What is it that you're tryin' to achieve, girl?
C Em Do you think we can talk about it some more?
C Dm You know, the streets are filled with vipers,
C Dm who've lost all ray of hope,
C G you know, it's not even safe no more
C G7 in the palace of the pope.
C Em Don't fall apart on me tonight, I just don't think that I
C Em can handle it.
C Em F Dm Don't fall apart on me tonight, yesterday's just a memory,
C F G tomorrow's never what it's supposed to be, and I need you,
C Em yeah.
C Em Come over here from over there, girl,
C Em sit down here, you can have my chair.
C Em I can't see us goin' anywhere, girl,
C Em the only place open is a 1000 miles away and I can't take
C Dm you there.
C Dm I wish that I'd been a doctor,
C Dm maybe I'd've saved some life that'd been lost,
C G maybe I'd've done some good in the world
C G7 'stead of burnin' every bridge I crossed.
C Em F I ain't too good at conversation, girl,
C Em so you might not know exactly how I feel.
C Em F But if I could, I'd bring you to the mountain top, girl,
C Em and build you a house made out of stainless steel.
C Dm But it's like I'm stuck inside this painting,
C Dm that's a-hangin' in the Louvre,
C G my throat starts to tickle and my nose itches,

G7 but I know that I can't move.
C Em F Don't fall apart on me tonight,
C Em F I just don't think that I could handle it,
C Em F don't fall apart on me tonight.
Dm Em yesterday's gone, but the past lives on.
F G tomorrow's just one step beyond, and I need you, yeah.
F C Who are these people that are walkin' towards you ?
C F Do you know them, or will there be a fight?
C F With their humorless smiles so easy to see through,
C F can they tell you what's wrong from what's right ?
C F Or do you remember St. James St.
C F where you blew Jackie P.'s mind,
C F he was so fine, Clark Gable would have fell at your feet
C F and laid his life on the line.
C G7
(C Em F) (2x)
C Em F Let's try to get beneath the surface waste, girl,
C Em no more booby traps and bombs, no more decadence and
C Em charms,
C Em no more affection that's misplaced, girl,
C Em no more mud-caked creatures lyin' in your arms.
Dm What about that millionaire
Dm with the drumsticks in his pants,
C G he looked so baffled and so bewildered,
C G7 when he played and we didn't dance.
C Em F Don't fall apart on me tonight,
C Em F I just don't think that I can handle it.
C Em F Don't fall apart on me tonight,
Dm Em yesterday's just a memory,
C F tomorrow's never what it's supposed to be,
C G7 and I need you, yeah, you, ah, I need you!
C G7
(C Em F) (10x)
