

Bob Dylan - Freight Train Blues

Tom: C

Intro: C (G) C (G) D G F C G

C

I was born in Dixie in a boomer's shack,

Just a little shanty by the railroad track

Freight train was it taught me how to cry,

The holler of the driver was my lullaby.

I've got the freight train blues (hee, hee, hoo)

D G

Oh, lawdy mama got em on the bottom of my ramblin' shoes

And when the whistle blows, I gotta go

F

Baby don't you know

C

G

It looks like I'm never gonna lose

C

( D G C F G )

The freight train blues.

Well, my daddy was a fireman and my mama hear

She was the only daughter of the engineer

My sweetheart loved the brakeman and that ain't no joke

Its a shame the way she keeps a good man broke.

I got the freight train blues (hee, hee, hoo)

Oh, lawdy I got em in the bottom of my ramblin' shoes

And when the whistle blows, I gotta go

Oh mama don't you know

Well it looks like I'm never gonna lose

The freight train blues.

Well, the only thing that makes you laugh again

Is a south bound whistle on a south bound train

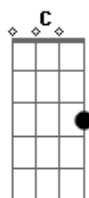

Every place I want to go

I never can go because you know

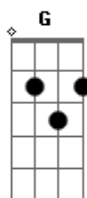

Because I got the freight train blues (hee, hee, hoo)

Oh, lawdy mama, got em on the bottom of my ramblin' shoe
