

Bob Dylan - I'm Not There

Tom: C

Intro: G C G C

Ev'ry thing's all right and then she's all the time in my neighborhood

She cries both day and night

I know it 'cause she was there

It's a milestone

but she's down on her luck

And the day makes her lonely and it's so hard to buck

...I was there

I believe that she'd stop him

Where she once stopped to care

I believe that she'd look upon beside 'em and care

And I'd go by her now and she's on my way

But I don't belong there

No I don't belong to her

I don't belong to anybody

She's my prize forsaken angel

But she don't hear me cry

She's a lone-hearted mystic

And she can carry on

When I'm there, she's all right

But she's not when I'm gone

Heaven knows she's the answer she don't call on no one

She's a wave, a thing of beauty she's mine for the one

And I'm not hesitating

by temptation lest it runs

But she don't follow me

but I'm not there, I'm gone

Now I'll cry tonight

Like I cried the night before

And I'll feast on her eyes but I'll dream about the door

So long, Jesus, savior

Blind faith worth to tell

It don't have consolation

she's my love far thee well

Her smile is contagious

I was born to love her

But she knows that the kingdom waits

so high above her

And I run but I race

but it's not too fast or soon

I'll try and not deceive her

I'm not there, I'm gone

It's all about confusion and I cry for her pale

I don't need anybody now beside me to tell

Cause it's all affirmation

I've received but it's not

I wish I was beside

Yes, she s gone like
