

Bob Dylan - I'm Not There

Tom: C	She's a wave, a thing of beauty
Intro: G C G C	she's mine for the one
Ev'ry thing's all right and then she's	And I'm not hesitating all the time in my neighborhood	by temptation lest it runs
She cries both day and night	But she don't follow me
I know it 'cause she was there	but I'm not there, I'm gone
It's a milestone	Now I'll cry tonight but she's down on her luck	Like I cried the night before And the day makes her lonely	And I'll feast on her eyes but and it's so hard to buck	I'll dream about the door
...I was there	So long, Jesus, savior
I believe that she'd stop him	Blind faith worth to tell
Where she once stopped to care	It don't have consolation
I believe that she'd look upon	she's my love far thee well beside 'em and care	Her smile is contagious
And I'd go by her now and she's on my way	I was born to love her
But I don't belong there	But she knows that the kingdom waits
No I don't belong to her	so high above her
I don't belong to anybody	And I run but I race
She's my prize forsaken angel	but it's not too fast or soon
But she don't hear me cry	I'll try and not deceive her
She's a lone-hearted mystic	I'm not there, I'm gone
And she can carry on	It's all about confusion
When I'm there, she's all right	and I cry for her pale
But she's not when I'm gone	I don't need anybody now
Heaven knows she's the answer	beside me to tell she don't call on no one	Cause it's all affirmation

I've received but it's not

I wish I was beside but I'm not there I'm gone

Yes, she s gone like
