

Bob Dylan - Its All Over Now Baby Blue

The empty-handed painter from your streets
                tom:
                                                                 Is drawing crazy patterns on your sheets
                Am 032010
C 033010 (add the little finger on the 4th string)
                                                                 The sky, too, is folding under you 220000 (actually an Em7, but this is what he plays for G )
                                                                 And it's all over now, Baby Blue
       200231 (use the thumb to fret the 6th string)
                                                                 [Terceira Parte]
Dm
       x22100 (or maybe E7: x22130)
(Note: be sure to strum the 6th string to keep the distinctive All your seasick sailors, they are rowing home Droning C note going.)
Droning C note going.)
                                                                 Your empty handed armies, they're all going home
Intro: C and C
(Hammering onto the 4th string at the 2nd fret)
                                                                 The lover who just walked out your door
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                 Has taken all his blankets from the floor
You must leave now, take what you need, you think will last
                                                                 The carpet, too, is moving under you
But whatever you wish to keep, you better grab it fast
                                                                 And it's all over now, Baby Blue
Yonder stands your orphan with his gun
                                                                 [Quarta Parte]
Crying like a fire in the sun
                                                                 Leave your stepping stones behind, something calls for you
Look out the saints are coming through
                                                                 Forget the dead you've left, they will not follow you
And it's all over now, Baby Blue
                                                                 The vagabond who's rapping at your door
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                 Is standing in the clothes that you once wore
The highway is for gamblers, better use your sense
                                                                 Strike another match, go start anew
                                                                                 F
Take what you have gathered from coincidence
                                                                 And it's all over now, Baby Blue
