

Bob Dylan - Rambler, Gambler

Tom: A

A
E
I?m a rambler I?m a gambler I?m a long way from my home

If the people don?t like me They can leave me alone

Come sit down beside me
Come sit down right here
Come sit down as long as you want to Love you always from here

When you get to Wyoming
A letter you?ll see
If you get in to trouble
Just you ride after me

For I once had a lover
Her age was sixteen

She was the flower of Belton
And the rose of Saline

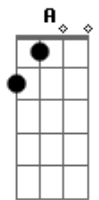

Her parents was against me
Now she?s just the same
If I?m writ in your book, gal
Just you blot out my name

Oh there?s changes in the ocean
There?s changes in the sea
There?s changes in my true love
Ain?t no change in me

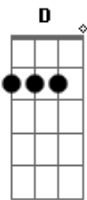

END

Hi everybody! this is the way Dylan plays it in the new ablum
No Direction Home
the lyrics (love you always from here) is just a gess because i can't figure out what he's saying on that part. but everything else is all set. enjoy playing this easy/fun song!
Peace
