Bob Dylan - When I Got Troubles

| Tom: E                                   |                      |                      |  | E                       | Α         |                 |      |   |
|--|----------------------|----------------------|--|-------------------------|-----------|-----------------|------|---|
|  |                      |                      |  | I'm gonna swing it up   |           |                 |      |   |
|  |                      |                      |  | E A                     |           |                 |      |   |
| E  | Α                    |                      |  | Swing down,             |           |                 |      |   |
|  |                      |                      |  | E                       |           |                 |      |   |
|  |                      |                      |  | Grab my baby, and wind  | , wind, w | vind,           |      |   |
|  |                      |                      |  | A                       |           |                 | E    |   |
| E  | Α                    | E                    |  | well, swing your troubl | es. swind | a vour troubles | awav |   |
| Well I got troubles, troubles on my mind |                      |                      |  | B7 A E                  |           |                 |      |   |
| A E                                      |                      |                      | Well, swing, baby, swing your troubles today |                         |           |                 |      |   |
| Yes, when I ad                           | ot those troubles, t | roubles on mv mind   |  | , , , , , , , , ,       | 5 5 5     | ···· ,   |      |   |
| , J.                                     | B7                   | A                    | E  | А                       | E         |                 | Α    | E |
| Well, I'm gonn                           | a forget my trouble  | s, leave my troubles | behind,                                      |                         |           |                 |      |   |
| B7                                       |                      |                      |  |                         |           |                 |      |   |
| behind                                   |                      |                      |  | swing it up             |           | swing it down   |      |   |
|  |                      |                      |  | grab the baby           |           |                 |      |   |

Acordes

