

Bob Marley - African Herbsman

Tom: Bb

Bb Gm
All twinklin? lee
Bb Gm
Can?t see the right rose when the streams abate
Bb Gm
The old slave men might grind slow
Eb
But it grinds fine, yeah
African herbsman, why linger on?
Just concentrate, 'cause heaven lives on
Greet-I-eth slave men will look with a scorn
With a transplanted heart ...yes, how quick they had to part
... how quick they had to part
The remembrance of today
Is the sad feelin? of tomorrow
... how quick ... Oh ... part, oh yeah
African herbsman, seize your time

I?m takin? illusion on the edge of my mind
I?m takin? losers down thru my life
Down thru my life, yeah yes, how quick they had to part
... how quick they had to part
Dideh part, yes, they part
In remembrance of today
... how quick they had to part
African herbsman, why linger on?
Just concentrate, 'cause your heaven lives on
Greet-I-eth slave men will look with a scorn
With a transplanted heart, yes, how ... quick they have to part
... how quick they have to part
In remembrance of today
Brings sad feelings of tomorrow
Yes, how quick they have to ... Lead me on, oh, Lord, I pray to you
African herbsman, African herbsman
African, African herbsman ...
