there she goes with the pieces from my heart there she goes and now my teardrop starts and here I go once again through this lonely heartaches and pain

 thats all remain now I know love is a guessing game

 who's gonna put back the pieces to my broken heart once again now I know this could be the end
