

Bojack Horseman - I Will Always Think Of You

tom:
 [Primera Parte]

I will always think of you
 I see your face when each day is through
 And days go past (oh, so fast)
 But memories, they last

[Segunda Parte]

Summer, winter, year by year (year by year)
 I'll hear the song inside my ear
 Trying to restart (that'd be smart)

But thoughts of you haunt my heart

[Refrão]

No, I don't want to be alone now, just bidin' my time
 I need somebody dearly, and darling, you'd be sublime

[Terceira Parte]

Spring and autumn, up and down (up and down)
 I keep trying to escape this town
 And I just might (I'll take flight)
 Maybe tomorrow, not tonight
