

Bon Jovi - American Reckoning

tom: G

America's on fire G

There's protests in the street Cadd9

Her conscience has been looted

And her soul is under?siege Am Cadd9

Another?mother's crying, as?history repeats G

I can't breathe G

God damn those?8 long minutes

Lying face down in cuffs on the ground Cadd9

Bystanders ?pleaded ?for ?mercy

As one, cop?shoved a kid ?in the crowd Am

When did a judge and a jury Cadd9

Become a badge and a knee on these streets? G

Cadd9 G

Stay alive, stay alive Am G

Shine a light, stay alive Em G Cadd9

Use your voice and you remember me G

American reckoning

G

I'll never know what it's like

To walk a mile in his shoes Cadd9

And I'll never have to have the talk

So it don't happen to you Am

Three little words written 'cross the chest Cadd9

Of a twelve year old who hasn't lived life yet G

Am I next? Am I next?

Cadd9 G

Stay alive, stay alive Am G

Shine a light, stay alive Em G Cadd9

Use your voice and you remember me G

American reckoning

[Solo] Em C D

Em C D

Am Cadd9 G

G

Is this a moment or movement?

Is this the tide or a flood? Cadd9

Is our American reckoning?

Our story written in blood Am

Or in love Cadd9

Or in peace Cadd9 G

Stay alive, stay alive Am G

Shine a light, stay alive Em G Cadd9

Use your voice and you remember me G

American reckoning

Cadd9 G

Stay alive, stay alive Am G

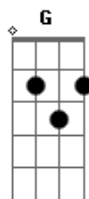

Shine a light, stay alive Em G Cadd9

Use your voice and you remember me G

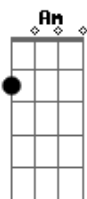

American reckoning

In our American reckoning
