

Bon Jovi - Live Before You Die

Tom: G

(intro 2x) G C

(verse)

G C
A little boy of nine years old, the whole world in his hands (G)

G C
Trying to toss that ball across the yard, a game of catch with my old man (bridge)

Am C
He'd always say i'm sorry every time he had to leave

Am C D
And I was much too young to understand what he would say to me
You learn to love to live
You fight and you forgive

(chorus)

D C
When you're young you always think the sun is gonna shine

D C
There come a day you'll have to say hello to goodbye

D C
Sit down son come take my hand, look me in the eye

Am C G
Take these words promise me your gonna live before you die

(verse 2)

G G
I was barely seventeen, the summer of seventy nine

G G
Already I was feeling like I was running out of time

Am C
I had this girl we fell in love, or should I say that she had me

Am C
Then one fateful night changed our lives and made a memory

(chorus)

When you're young you always think the sun is gonna shine
There will come a day you'll have to say hello to goodbye
She laid me down she took my hand and looked me in the eye
And just before she kissed me she said you're gonna live before die

(G)

(bridge)

Am C D
You learn to love to live

Am C D
You fight and you forgive

Am C D
You learn what's wrong and right

Am C G
You gotta live before you dieeee

C
I've made mistakes I've caught my breaks, but i've got no regrets

G C
There's some things I don't remember but one thing I don't forget

(chorus)

When you're young you always think the sun is gonna shine
There will come a day you'll have to say hello to goodbye
Shout it out let someone somewhere know that you're alive
Take these words wear them well, you gotta live before you die

(bridge)

You learn to love to live
You fight and you forgive

You face the darkest night
Just live before you die
