Verso 1:

E
I don't no license to sign on no line

And I don't need no preacher to tell me you're mine

A
I don't need no diamonds I don't need new bride

E
I just need you, baby to look me in the eye

I know they have a hand time and your Daddy don't approve

But I don't need your Daddy telling us what we should do

Pre-Chorus:

G
Now there's a million questions I could ask about our lives

G
But I only need one answer

A B
to get me through the night

Chorus:

E A E
So I say baby, can you tell me just where we fit in

A E B
I call it love they call it living in sin

E
Is it right for both our parents who fight it out most nights

Then pray for God's forgiveness when they both turn out the lights

Or wear that ring of diamonds when your heart is made of stone

E
You can talk but still say nothing You stay together but alone

Pre-Chorus:

G
Or is it right to hold you

A
And kiss your lips goodnight

G A
They say the promise is forever If you sign it on the

B dotted line
