

Bon Jovi - Postcards From The Wasteland

Tom: E
Intro: E - A
E - A

Tonight the moon is pretty as a brand new rose
And the nosey stars seem to know
Where everybody goes
As poets reach for words
Dbm7 B
With broken motel pens
Here's something to hold on to till I come home again
E A2
Here the days don't have names they got numbers
B2 A2
And the nights just seems to dance into each other
E E Dbm7 B
Sacred lovers are like fire flies each one has a spark
A B
Trying to fill the whole where once there was a heart
<>
E A B
I'm sending Postcards from the Wasteland
E A B
Following my headlights don't the highway in the dark
E A B
I'm sending Postcards from the Wasteland

Postmarked from the state of my heart

And all of our turn into yesterdays

Until I've got you in my arms
