                                                                (BRIDGE )
   (INTRO)
                                                                This world ain't so cut and dry but I can't 'why?' wrong or EAEA
(VERSE)
                                                                I ain't here to justify what I gotta do to survive
Hey, my name is Jim, I fought in Vietnam
                                                                (Chorus)
My life's a bargain basement, all the good shit's gone
                                                                Hey, man, I'm alive
I just can't hold a job. Where did I go wrong?
                                                                As long as I can breathe, as long as I can fight
I'm sleeping in my car; My dreams moved on Hey man, I know I'll get by
My name is Billy Jean, my love is bought and sold
                                                                When I wanna die I pick up all the pieces and what's left of my pride
I'm only sixteen, I feel a hundred years old
                                                                I'm feeling like a Monday but I wish I were a Saturday night
My foster daddy went and took my innocence away
                                                                I'm feeling like a Monday but someday I'll be Saturday night
The street life ain't much better but at least I'm getting (SOLO)
paid
                                                                    Dbm
(BRIDGE )
                                                                    Gbm
                                                                Е
                                                                    Dbm
                                                                          Α
Tuesday just might go my way
                                                                    Gbm
It can't get worse than yesterday
                                                                (BRIDGE)
Thursdays, Fridays ain't been kind
                                                                Tuesday just might go my_way

But somehow I'll survive
                                                                It can't get worse than yesterday
(Chorus)
                                                                Thursdays, Fridays ain't been kind
Hey, man, I'm alive
                                                                Somehow I'll survive
   Ghm
As long as I can breathe, as long as I can fight
                                                                (Chorus)
Hey man, I know I'll get by
                                                                Hey, man, I'm alive
                        Gbm
                                                                   Ghm
When I wanna die I pick up all the pieces and what's left of
                                                                As long as I can breathe, as long as I can fight
                                                                Hey man, I know I'll get by
I'm feeling like a Monday but I wish I were a Saturday night
                                                                                        Gbm
                                                                When I wanna die I pick up all the pieces and what's left of (VERSE)
                                                                my pride
I can't say my name, my life is on the line
                                                                Dbm E Dbm
                                                                I'm feeling like a Monday but someday I'll be Saturday night
They say that I'm to blame, that I'm guilty of a crime
                                                                I'm feeling like a Monday but someday I'll be Saturday night
I wish that I could be in another time and place
                                                                I'm feeling like a Monday but someday I'll be Saturday night
With someone else's soul and someone else's face
                                                                Transcripted by Felipe Fontoura Melachawças
