

Bon Jovi - Someday just might be tonight

Tom: C

(Intro)

Bb F Eb
Bb F Eb
C G F
C G F

(VERSE)

C G
Playing king of the mountain on a dead end street

F
At the end of the block is where we cut our teeth

C G
The world was trying to sweep up off our feet

F
I'd run home crying with cut up knees

D F
"Alright," Mama said. "It's alright."

C G
Now nothing's and it never will

F
When you learn to swallow defeat like a bitter pill

C G
Remember the story about Jack 'n' Jill

F
They ended up driving in a Coupe de Ville

D F
You don't know when your ship will arrive

(Chorus)

Bb F
Don't give up, don't give in

Eb Ebm
Stand and fight, you just might win

Bb
When the ride gets rough

F
Hold on tight

Eb C G F C G F
Someday just might be tonight

(VERSE)

C G
You're the kind that goes swimming with a raincoat on

F
Who's to say if you are right or wrong

C G
Let me know when you figured it out

F

Just don't go drowning in a shadow of doubt

D F
Don't let the bastards make up your mind

(Chorus)

Bb F
Don't give up, don't give in

Eb Ebm
Stand and fight, you just might win

Bb
When the ride gets rough

F
Hold on tight

Eb Ebm
Someday just might be tonight

((BRIDGE))

F C
You may never find a treasure that's been washed up on the beach

F G Am
Heaven won't be waiting for you walking down these city streets

F G C F
Remember Mama's Band Aids on your scabby knees

D F
They had to bleed for little victories

(Chorus)

Bb F
Don't give up, don't give in

Eb Ebm
Stand and fight, you just might win

Bb
When the ride gets rough

F
Hold on tight

Eb Bb
Someday just might be tonight

F
Don't give up, don't give in

Eb Ebm
You never know when the ship will come in

Bb
When the ride gets rough

F
Hold on tight

Eb Bb Bb F Eb Ebm
'Cause someday just might be tonight

Bb F Eb Bb Bb F Eb Ebm
Bb F Eb Bb

Acordes

