

Bon Jovi - Sympathy

Tom: G

(Intro)

Em

(Verse)

Well you walked out the door just like a thief in the night
 I guess you never even had the balls to say goodbye
 You stole my heart and you took all the cash
 You split with my soul and my stereo, left me with the trash

(BRIDGE )

I never been nobody's Valentine and you never were a bride to be
 I don't need you to be a friend of mine, I don't need no charity

(Chorus)

Don't come knockin' on my back door
 Love ain't livin' 'round here no more
 I don't want to taste your empathy
 I don't want no sympathy
 I don't need your sympathy, baby
 Don't want no sympathy
 I don't need your sympathy, baby

(VERSE )

I bet your out on the streets, wrapped up in somebody's arms
 Until it's time to pay the rent - you'll be gone, gone, gone
 You got a suicide heart, you send it COD
 Honey, I know your act, when you're sending it back don't come bitchin' to me

(BRIDGE )

Who said love is just a sacrifice was a man in need of sympathy
 It sure don't take too long to realize that you ain't getting none from me

(Chorus)

Don't come knockin' on my back door
 Love ain't livin' 'round here no more
 I don't want to taste your empathy
 I don't want no sympathy
 I don't need your sympathy, baby
 Don't want no sympathy
 I don't need your sympathy, baby

(Solo)

Em D A D Em D A D
 Em D A D Em D A C D

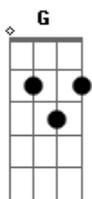

(BRIDGE )

When I look back in time I see love ain't been no friend to me
 I never been nobody's Valentine and you never were a bride to be

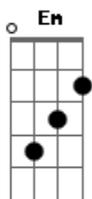

(Chorus)

Don't come knockin' on my back door
 Love ain't livin' 'round here no more
 Count up all the tears you've cried for me
 Don't come knockin' on my back door
 Love ain't livin' round here no more
 I don't wanna taste your charity
 I don't want no sympathy
 I don't need no sympathy, baby
 Don't want no sympathy
 I don't need your sympathy, baby
 I want no sympathy
 I don't need no sympathy
 I don't like no sympathy
 I won't hear your sympathy, sympathy, sympathy, sympathy, not for me?
