

Bon Jovi - These open arms

```
Is there someone you can count on when you need a friend?
                                                            Gbm E7 A
                                                         Can't you see I need a friend?
You must lower 1/2 tone (Eb )
Você deve afinar meio tom abaixo (Eb ) |
                                                         (Chorus)
                                                         These open arms
D xx0232 Bm
                           x04422
A7sus xx0234
                    E7(add11) 400420
                                                        Will wait for you
      x02220
                     E 022100
    x02220 E7 420100
x46654 Gbm
                                                         These open arms
    x46654
x40232 C
                              244222
Dbm
                                                          Α
                   x32010
                                                         Can pull us through x24432
                                133211
                                                         Between what's left and left to do
                                                           G Bm
                                                         These open arms
(Intro)
                                                           A Gbm
     D A7sus
D A7sus
                                                         These open arms
A7sus
A7sus
                                                         These open arms
(Verse)
                                                            Α
                                                        Will wait for you
What if everything you always took for granted was gone
            Dbm
                                                         (Bridge)
And everything you ever thought was right was wrong
                                                         Can you live in your skin? Walk in your own shoes?
            Bm F7(add11)
What if everyone you ever loved was torn
      Dbm
                                                         Can't win if you don't know how to lose
From the pages of your life
                                                         Crawl, fall, try
Would you reach out for tomorrow or try to turn back time
                                                         You're gonna learn to fly
(Chorus)
These open arms
                                                         These open arms
   Α
Will wait for you
                                                        Will wait for you
These open arms
                                                        These open arms
 Α
Can pull us through
                                                          Α
                                                         Can pull us through
Between what's left and left to do
    G Bm
                                                         Between what's left and left to do
These open arms
                                                           G Bm
     A Gbm
                                                         These open arms
These open arms
                                                         These open arms
These open arms
                                                                 G
               A7sus D
                           A7sus
                                                        These open arms
 Α
Will wait for you
                                                           A Gbm
                                                        These open arms
                                                        These open arms
                                                      A A A7sus
Did you really love the ones you said you'd love
                                                                                  A7sus
                                                                                              A7sus
                                                                                                           A7sus
                                                        Will wait for you
That's right - did you make a damn of difference in somebody else's life?
                                          E7(add11)
                                                        transcripted by Felipe Fontoura Melachawças
Acordes
```

