E
It's pretty cold for late September the autumn wind is creeping in
A
The summer sun packed up its long gone
E
There's a whole lot of leaving going on.

E
I'll bet it's warm in California I think it's time to hit the road
A
I just might call that band of gypsies
Go searching for our pot of gold

B A
Seems like lately there's a whole lot Of leaving going on.

(Refrão)
A E
I close my eyes and picture your hand in mine
A E

I still hear your voice It takes me back to that time
B A
Where I could find a reason to be strong
B A E
Seems like lately there's a whole lot of leaving goin on

Close the window draw the curtains
You ain't the only one here hurtin' No one's right no one's wrong
Lately there's a whole lot of leavin' goin' on

Refrão / Solo: E A E

E
You used to live to say you love me Now you got one foot out the door
Its then you turn around and ask me Do we got it anymore

- Refrão

(A E)
I close my eyes and picture your hand in mine
You'll never hear me saying good bye
B A
So pretty baby, please be strong
B A E
Seems like lately there's a whole lot of leavin' goin' on
I'll come back for you baby
