Intro:  A   Abm  Dbm
        Bm   E7   A

Abm
You, you
Dbm
You, you
You tell me all the time

Bm      E7
You, you
Uh, shit

A                              Abm
You tell me all the time, no, you tell me it ain't right, I treat
              Dbm
You like a side hoe
                    Bm                    E7
I hit you when your eyes low, but never in the light, I fuck
with you
At night, though
                      Abm
You need to let your pride go, I say it's in your mind, but do it
           Dbm
Every time, though
                    Bm                    E7
I hit you when your eyes low, but never in the light, I fuck
with
           A
You at night, though

                 Abm                      Dbm
You tell me, "come over" (over), but not when I'm so faded, can I
           Bm
Come when I'm sober?
E7                    A
I do it every time, though
                 Abm                      Dbm
You tell me, "come over" (over), but not when I'm so faded,
can I
```

```
                 Bm
Come when I'm sober?
E7                    A
I do it every time, though
                      Abm
And I just hit your line, though
                         Dbm
Like, "Why you let it die for?"
                   Bm                      E7
Now let go of your pride, like can I come inside, like, "Do you got
A light?" (Smoke)
                         Abm
But you don't even smoke anymore
                              Dbm
You ain't laughin' at my jokes anymore (no, no-oh, no-oh)
Bm                    E7                   A
Like why I think you gone be woke until four, oh yeah
                         Abm
I see your booty in your PJ's
                         Dbm
You tell me you ain't tryna eat late
                              Bm
Made me wanna see things (hey), tell me that I need change
E7                         A
Made me wanna hit you in the light, oh (hey)

                      Abm
You tell me it ain't right, though, I say it's in your mind,
but do
              Dbm
It every time, though
                    Bm                    E7
I hit you when your eyes low, but never in the light, I fuck
with
           A
You at night, though

            Abm        Dbm
I can't let you go although I know
           Bm         E7              A
Although I know you're not even good for me, no
              Abm         Dbm
I should be alone, you hurt my soul
           Bm      E7            A
I should know better, but I do it all the time
