

Borns - Dug My Heart

tom:

A

A
You dug my heart a grave
A
I watched you illustrate
D
The expression of another lonely girl
A
And there you lie awake
A
And wish you knew a way
D
To fade the blaring silence from your only world

And now you're Gbm
Running to the sound of the light
Gbm E
Running to the sound of the light
D
Running to the sound of the light

A
Ooooh, oh. It's inevitable
D
Ain't it? You left without saying
A D
Ooooh, oh, I hope the cracks in the pavement

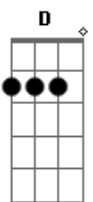

lead back to you baby
E
Back to you baby

A
I've burnt so many memories
A
Just to make room for any
A
Thoughts of caressing your sweet
A
Anatomy as we sleep
A
The taste you left on my teeth
