I woke up long after dawn, 20 years had come and gone
A
I know when it changed for me, a day in June you came to me
Gb
I've seen through someone else's eyes with nothing on the other side
B
Every motel, every town pieces scattered all around

Promises that I can't be, someone's heart that I can't keep
E
Days so long I couldn't speak, roads so rocky I can't sleep
Gb
But I've seen things so beautiful all around this broken world
B
That pale in comparison to you

E B A E B E
Caroline I'm on my way back home to you
A E Gb
Imagine what I'm going through without you by my side
B E B A E B E
It's been a long, long time, oh won't you say a prayer for me
A E Gb B
I hope you will remember me, you are always on my mind

A
I have seen the canyon lands, crooked lines like in your hands
E
You'd swear the earth was split in two, I wouldn't lie I promise you
Gb
That I have seen it, you will too, you could not believe if not for
B
Photographs I took for you, Caroline

A

They've built towers to the sky it hurts sometimes to watch them try

E
They run themselves into the ground but I know you will love them

Gb
And their city lights and city sounds, there's beauty in the struggle

B
Anytime I feel it get me down I see you smiling

E B A E B E
Caroline I'm on my way back home to you
A E Gb
Imagine what I'm going through without you by my side
B E B A E B E
It's been a long, long time, oh won't you say a prayer for me
A E Gb
I hope you will remember me, you are always on my mind
B
My Caroline

A
Now I have seen things in the sky: stars and lights and birds and I

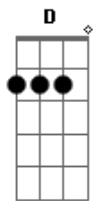

E
I've been rocky mountain high and told them all about you

Gb
Because you are still the only thing that constantly amazes me

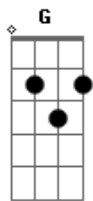

B
I love the road and I've been blessed but I love you best

E B A E B E
Caroline I'm on my way back home to you
A E Gb
Imagine what I'm going through without you by my side
B E B A E B E
It's been a long, long time, oh won't you say a prayer for me
