

Brent Morgan - Gonna Be Okay

tom:

Intro: G D C

Don't listen to the voice inside your head
You're doing just fine, you're trying your best
But no one ever told you it's all gonna be okay

We're just people never sleeping over stupid shit
We won't remember in the morning, yeah we're gonna forget
But no one ever told you it's all gonna be okay

When you lose faith in everything you ever knew
Don't give up on you

When life gets overwhelming
Relying on yourself is hard to do
But don't give up on you, no

If you've been lost and lonely
Ashamed to be alone with only you
With no one left to lose

If it's the last thing that you do
Don't give up on you

You've been living off opinions for way too long
Afraid to be right, ashamed to be wrong
But no one ever told you it's all gonna be okay

Those people always keeping up to keep you down
Stop looking for a reason just to keep 'em around
I know they ever told you it's all gonna be okay

When you lose faith in everything you ever knew
Don't give up on you

When life gets overwhelming
Relying on yourself is hard to do
But don't give up on you, no

If you've been lost and lonely
Ashamed to be alone with only you
With no one left to lose

If it's the last thing that you do
Don't give up on you
There's no one like you, yeah

One of one, never gonna find another like you, yeah
You, there's no one like you, yeah

One of one, never gonna find another like you, yeah

When life gets overwhelming
Relying on yourself is hard to do
But don't give up on you, no

If you've been lost and lonely
Ashamed to be alone with only you
With no one left to lose

If it's the last thing that you do
Don't give up on you
