Intro: Am C G D F
                                                               Ready for the knock on my door
       Am
I want a talk show
                                                               5:15 not a minute more
Guess that'll have to do
                                                               Ready for the waves on my shore
  G
Up all night
                                                               And at 5:16 if you're not with me
bbming you
                                                               You can catch me in the next city
                                                               Never knew you meant that much to me

Head still aches
Got enough strength to flip a pancake (add your own alterations or spice it up a little such as alternating the D chord
Got the luggage packed to a D7 or something)
Waiting by the front
                                                               Na na na na
                                                               Na na na na
Quarter after five

           Am
5:15 not a minute more
                                                               Ready for the knock on my door
Ready for the waves on my shore
                                                                            Am
                                                               5:15 not a minute more
                       Αm
And at 5:16 if you're not with me
                                                               Ready for the waves on my shore
You can catch me in the next city
                                                               And at 5:16 if you're not with me
           Am
                                                               You can catch me in the next city
Until 5:15
                                                               Never knew you meant that much to me
Am C G D
                                                               Until 5:15
(repeat Am C G D throughout)
                                                                                    Am
I think I've come done
                                                               I won't wait another minute, no
Sick on puppy love
Wanna break out
                                                               When the waves are at my shore
Think I've had enough
The walls are caving in
                                                               Ready for the waves on my shore
And my think skin is feeling kinda thin
You find your way back in
                                                               And at 5:16 if you're not with me
Never thought it meant
                                                               You can catch me in the next city
When we came to june
I would feel this way about you
But I'll say it one last time
                                                               Never knew you meant that much to me
                                                               Until 5:15
