Bridgit Mendler - Forgot To Laugh

Tom: F

              F                       Bb
When I read your face It's like a screen door
                   Dm                    C
I can see right through Your heart's a window
        F                   Bb
Why you gotta treat me like the bimbo?
     Dm
The sticks are out
             C
And you don't care anymore

F           Bb
You make it so easy
Dm                    C
You're sweet like a Reese's Pieces
F               Bb
   But I promise, if you leave me
Dm                  C
You'll be crawling on your knees
             Bb      C
So if you go it's a joke

Bb          F
If you drive away
Dm                    C
Hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
Bb          F
If it's goodbye today
Dm                       C
Know you're leaving here empty handed
Bb                   F
'Cause I got my own life
Dm                 C
And you're just a punch line
Bb             C
If you go, you're a joke
             C
I forgot to laugh

        F                           Bb
You don't like it when I check your iPhone
     Dm                  C
I don't even get my own ring tone
        F                    Bb
When you're hanging out with all your best bros
        Dm                  C
You don't wanna tell me where you guys go

F            Bb
You say that I'm needy
Dm                    C
Like a kid needs Reese's Pieces
F            Bb
But I promise if you leave me
Dm                       C
You'll be running back to me
Bb          C
At my door, what a joke

F        Bb
If you drive away
Dm                    C
Hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
F            Bb
If it's goodbye today
Dm                    C
Know you're leaving here empty handed
F            Bb

```
'Cause I got my own life
Dm                 C
And you're just a punch line
Bb           C
If you go, you're a joke
               C
I forgot to laugh

                           Bb
So if you're saying 'peace' like
                        F
You're so over me
                        Dm
Tryin' to sting like a bee
                 C
Then I gotta laugh
                      Bb
You're more like a jockey
                     F
Or a cute little bunny
                 Dm
Think that you're funny
              C
Then I gotta laugh
      Bb F Dm C
Laugh
      F              Bb
Like a diamond in a mountain of coal
         Dm              C...
I'm the girl the guys can't find anymore

Hey yeah!

Bb        F
If you drive away
Dm                     C
Hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
F          Bb
If it's goodbye today
Dm                     C
Know you're leaving here empty handed
F            Bb
'Cause I got my own life
Dm                 C
And you're just a punch line
Bb            C
If you go, you're a joke
               C
I forgot to laugh

Bb        F
If you drive away
Dm                    C
Hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
F          Bb
If it's goodbye today
Dm                       C
Know you're leaving here empty handed
F            Bb
'Cause I got my own life
Dm                 C
And you're just a punch line
Bb           C
If you go, you're a joke
               C
I forgot to laugh

Bb F Dm C
{Na na na na...} x3
I forgot to laugh
```
