Am G C F
Am G C F E

Am G
I picked you out
C F
Of a crowd to talk to you
Am G
Said I liked your shoes
C F
You said thanks can I follow you?
Am G
So it's up the stairs
C F
And out of view, no prying eyes
Am G
I poured some wine
C F E
I asked your name you asked the time
Am G
Now it's two o'clock,
C F
the club is closed we're up the block
Am G
Your hands on me
C F
Pressing hard against your jeans
Am G
Your tongue in my mouth
C F
Trying to keep the words from coming out
Am G
You didn't care to know
C F E

I want a lover I don't have to love
I want a girl who's to sad to give a fuck
Where's the kid with the chemicals?
I thought he said to meet me here but I'm not sure
I got the money if you got the time
You said it feels good I said I'll give it a try
Then my mind went dark
We both forgot where your car was parked
Let's just take the train
I'll meet up with the band in the morning
Bad actors with bad habits
Some sad singers
They just play tragic
And the phone's ringing
And the van's leaving
Let's just keep touching
Let's just keep keep singing
I want a lover I don't have to love
I want a boy who's so drunk he doesn't talk
Where's the kid with the chemicals
I got a hunger and I can't seem to get full
I need some meaning I can memorize
The kind I have always seems to slip my mind
But you but you
You write such pretty words
But life's no story book
Love is an excuse to get hurt
And to hurt
"Do you like to hurt?"
"I do! I do!"
"Then hurt me."
