

Bring Me The Horizon - True Friends

Tom: F

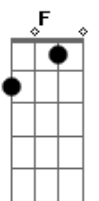

I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
Cause I'll forget but I'll never forgive you,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
It's funny how things work out,
Such a bitter irony,
Like a kick right to the teeth,
It fell apart right from the start,
But I couldn't even see,
the forest through the trees, (I'm afraid you asked for this)
You got a lot of nerves, but not a lot of spine,
You made your bed when you're worried about mine,
This ends now.
I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
Cause I'll forget but I'll never forgive you,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
You broke my heart and there's nothing you can do,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
It's kinda sad cause what we had,
Well it could have been something,
I guess it wasn't meant to be,
So how dare you
Try and steal my flame just cos yours faded,

Well hate is gasoline,
A fire fuelling all my dreams, (I'm afraid you asked for this) (ring out/strum on the beat)
You got a lot of nerves, but not a lot of spine,
You made your bed when you're worried about mine,
This ends now.
I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
Cause I'll forget but I'll never forgive you,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
You broke my heart and there's nothing you can do,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
You can run, but you can't hide,
Time won't help you, Cause karma has no deadline,
You can run, but you can't hide,
Time won't help you, Cause karma has no deadline,
I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
Cause I'll forget but I'll never forgive you,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
I wouldn't hold my breath if I was you,
You broke my heart and there's nothing you can do,
Don't you know, Don't you know?
True friends stab you in the front
Now you know, now you know, True friends stab you in front
Now you know, now you know, True friends stab you in front
