

Britney Spears - Mona lisa

Tom: Bb

Ladies and gentlemen I've got a little story to tell About Mona Lisa and how she suddenly fell (huh)
See everyone knew her, They knew her oh so well
Now I am taking over to release her from her spell

[Chorus]
She's unforgettable
She was a legend though
It's kind a pitiful, that she's gone
It's kind of incredible
She's so unpredictable
It's time to let her go, cuz she's gone, cuz she's gone, cuz
she's gone

She was taken under, drowning in her seat (huh)
Running like an angel she was crying but could not see (oh no!)
Now see everyones watching, as she starts to fall
Now don't have a breakdown you will hit the freakin wall

[Chorus]
She's unforgettable
She was a legend though
It's kind a pitiful, that she's gone
It's kind of incredible

She's so unpredictable
It's time to let her go, cuz she's gone, cuz she's gone, cuz
she's gone

Now ladies does that make you cryyyy? (huh)
Now fellas you have to say goodbyeee
Cuz Mona Lisa's got to flyyyyy
Everyone, may we have a moment of silence? Right here.

God

[Chorus]
She's unforgettable
She was a legend though
It's kind a pitiful, that she's gone
It's kind of incredible
She's so unpredictable
It's time to let her go, cuz she's gone, cuz she's gone, cuz
she's gone

[Chorus]
She's unforgettable
She was a legend though
It's kind a pitiful, that she's gone
It's kind of incredible
She's so unpredictable
It's time to let her go, cuz she's gone, cuz she's gone, cuz
she's gone...
