Britney Spears - Walk on by

Tom: Bb

I'm coming down with a heartache tonight, Only you can make it right, if I can't be with you holding you tight there won't be no morning light everywhere I turn, I see your face reminding me of a higher place everytime you smile, angels cry, everytime you walk on by.

I'm not the only , feeling lonely everytime you walk on by. I tried to say something,but end up with nothing everytime you walk on by

I keep my cool and pretend I'm not in everytime you come too near I'm such a fool coz, this love is true and if I dont tell u someone else surely

everywhere I turn, I see your face reminded me of a higher place everytime u smile, angels cry, everytime you walk on by.

I'm not the only , feeling lonely everytime you walk on by. I tried to say something,but end up with nothing everytime you walk on by

If I ever see you again, this craziness must find an end I look at u and I promise myself..

I'm not the only , feeling lonely everytime you walk on by. I tried to say something,but end up with nothing everytime you walk on by fade out..
