

Britt Nicole - The Sun Is Rising

tom:

Intro: Bm G A Gbm

When life has cut too deep

And left you hurting

The future you had hoped

For is now burning

And the dreams you held so tight

Lost their meaning

And you don't know if you'll ever

Find the healing

You're gonna make it

You're gonna make it

And the night can only last for so long

Whatever you're facing

If your heart is breaking

There's a promise for the ones

Who just hold on

Lift up your eyes and see

The sun is rising

( D A Bm G )

Every high and every low

You're gonna go through

You don't have to be afraid

I am with you

In the moments you're so weak

You feel like stopping

Let the hope you have light

The road you're walking

You're gonna make it

You're gonna make it

And the night can only last for so long

Whatever you're facing

If your heart is breaking

There's a promise for the ones

Who just hold on

Lift up your eyes and see

The sun is rising

Even when you can't imagine how

How you're ever gonna find your way out

Even when you're drowning in your doubt

Just look beyond the clouds

The sun is rising, the sun is rising

Just look beyond the clouds

The sun is rising, the sun is rising

Whatever you're facing

If your heart is breaking

There's a promise for the ones

Who just hold on

Lift up your eyes and see

The sun is rising

( D A Bm G )

Even when you can't imagine how

Even when you're drowning in your doubt

Just look beyond the clouds

Even when you can't imagine how

Even when you're drowning in your doubt
